DETAILED ACTION

1. This action is responsive to the following communications: the Application filed on February 27, 2004, and the Information Disclosure Statement filed on June 25, 2004.
2. Claims 1-20 are pending in the case. Claim 1, 9, 15, and 19 are independent claims.

Election/Restrictions

3. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:

Group I. Claims 1-8, and 15-18, drawn to DRAM with a trench capacitor, classified in class 365, subclass 149. ( Systems using particular element → Capacitors)

Group II. Claims 9-14, drawn to method of fabricating a DRAM with a trench capacitor, classified in class 438, subclass 259. ( Making field effect device having pair of active regions separated by gate structure by formation or alteration of semiconductor active regions → Having junction gate, e.g., JFET, SIT → Having additional gate electrode surrounded by dielectric, i.e., floating gate → Including forming gate electrode in trench or recess in substrate)

Group III. Claims 19-20, drawn to a vertical transistor, classified in class 257, subclass 220. ( Field effect device → Charge transfer device → Majority signal carrier, e.g., buried or bulk channel, or peristaltic → Impurity concentration variation → Vertically within channel, e.g., profiled)

4. The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

Inventions Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case Group I does not require that the deep trench be filled with polysilicon.

Inventions Group I and Group III are related as subcombinations disclosed as usable together in a single combination. The subcombinations are distinct from each other if they are shown to be separately usable. In the instant case, invention Group III has separate utility such as not requiring a word-line voltage.

See MPEP § 806.05(d).

5. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 2824

6. A telephone call was made to Steven Fischman on 11/22/2005 to request an oral election to the above restriction requirement, but did not result in an election being made.

Applicant is advised that the reply to this requirement to be complete must include an election of the invention to be examined even though the requirement be traversed (37 CFR 1.143).

Conclusion

When responding to this office action, applicants are advised to provide the examiner with the line numbers and page numbers in the application and/or references cited to assist the examiner in locating appropriate paragraphs.

A shortened statutory period for response to this action is set to expire three months and zero days from the date of this letter. Failure to respond within the period for response will cause this application to become abandoned (see MPEP 710.02(b)).
